

The Cheapside Business Alliance ebulletin Feb 2016

Clean Streets... Cleaner Cheapside!!!

The Clean Streets Partnership are working in conjunction with the Cheapside Business Alliance. The Cheapside Ambassadors have been visiting many Cheapside businesses and delivering the Cleaner Street Partnership information booklet. Cleaner Streets is about your business working together with City of London Street Environment Officers to plan and implement ways to reduce litter and waste around your premises and keep the Cheapside streets clean.

- There are a number of ways that your business can benefit from the scheme, including:
- It can help you towards ensuring compliance with waste legislation
  - Meeting your Corporate Social Responsibilities by doing your bit for the environment
  - Demonstrating good cleansing practices makes you a role model for neighbouring businesses
  - You receive ten free pocket pouches for disposing of gum and cigarette butts

Counter Terrorism event

Cheapside Business Alliance will be hosting a Counter Terrorism event on the 23rd Feb at 10am-11am. Limited spaces please RSVP to nickipalmer@primera-corp.co.uk ASAP. We require name email address of person attending. Closing date for RSVP 12th Feb 2016.

This session will provide an up-to-date and comprehensive overview of the threats we in the UK currently face. Threat levels will be explained to provide a better understanding of what they actually mean and how they affect those living and working in London. The national response to weapons attack, Stay Safe, will be run through with advice of how to implement plans as a business and as an individual. The session will also include how each of us can assist with the challenges around stopping any attack planning.

Please see the website for the link to the Run Hide Tell clip and advice.

Events

Visscher Redrawn: 1616-2016

FREE
New exhibition/competition at Guildhall Art Gallery
20 February – 20 March
www.cityoflondon.gov.uk/visscher

In a City moving forward so fast, it pays to look back. Claes Jansz. Visscher's 1616 engraving is one of the most iconic images of medieval London. Four hundred years on, artist Robin Reynolds has recreated the 6.6ft panorama to depict today's metropolis. Published in the year of Shakespeare's death, Visscher's engraving is one of the few visual records of London before much of it was destroyed in the Great Fire of 1666. To commemorate the landmark anniversaries of 350 years since the Fire and 400 years since Shakespeare's death, the two artworks will be displayed side-by-side at Guildhall Art Gallery.

COMPETITION: In recognition of Shakespeare 400, Reynolds's drawing includes references to the Bard's 37 plays, three major poetic works, and the sonnets. Follow the clues and go in the draw to win a signed copy of the print and a tour of the exhibition with Reynolds himself. Enquire at the Gallery's reception for details on how to enter.

Shakespeare Son et Lumiere

FREE
4 & 5 March, 6.45pm – 8.45pm (20 min loop – last show commencing 8.15pm approx.)
www.cityoflondon.gov.uk/sonetlumiere

The historic Guildhall Great Hall will be illuminated with a spectacular Shakespeare Son et Lumiere to celebrate the Bard's connection to the capital. Along with a stunning light and sound production, the surrounding Galleries will operate extended opening hours where you can view both Shakespeare and London and Visscher Redrawn: 1616-2016 exhibitions. Complete your evening with a Shakespeare themed cocktail from the pop-up bar.

Shakespeare and London

9 Jan -31 Mar
FREE
www.cityoflondon.gov.uk/heritagegallery
